

1.3.1. Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, Human Values into the Curriculum

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies follows the university's curriculum and incorporates a variety of socially relevant cross-cutting topics like ethics, human values, the environment, and other topics. into the UG and PG projects to bring issues to light among the students. All programs include courses in ethics, human values, human resources and organizational behavior, community outreach through NSS and community services, and environmental studies.

Human Qualities and Professional Morals:

As an open subject/elective, all students are offered a one-credit human qualities course "Proficient Morals and Human Qualities", which should be taken no less than once during their examinations. For the reasons for social advancement exercises, for instance, working in non-legislative associations, putting together blood donation camps, wellbeing examination camps, cleanliness and wellbeing workshops, natural mindfulness camps, classes on friendly, general wellbeing, orientation issues, and so on. Movements of every kind are checked by educators liable for every organization/grounds. The college additionally welcomes all students to enlist as NSS volunteers, as this is a vital piece of students' contribution in friendly exercises during the review program. It aims to cultivate traits, ethics, and values that are socially responsible. Students put together for Rally's, mindfulness crusades, discussions, and so forth. The classes on human qualities were coordinated by the students all along.

In the second semester of the management program, the class "Constitution of India," students learn about human values and professional ethics. The primary goal of the course is to guarantee that students know the Constitution, essential obligations and freedoms of residents, proficient morals and obligations of specialists. The course additionally brings issues to light about digital violations and digital regulations. First-year UG students will be dependent upon an Understudy mobilization Program (Taste) that tends to cross-cutting issues like human qualities and expert morals. 2019 and 2020 guidelines, the course "Hard working attitudes and Worth Framework" for MBA students gives experiences into hard working attitudes and information on corporate-administration.

Climate and Manageability:

Natural and maintainability points are addressed through the Ecological Examinations course proposed to designing students in the fifth semester. Through this course, students are acquainted with natural and ecological issues connected with land, air and water and foster an attention to supportable turn of events. All UG programs have 3-4 credit courses. To expand students' familiarity with natural and maintainability issues, various exercises, for example, workshops, practical meetings, visitor addresses, organization visits and field trips were coordinated for students, everything being equal. Climate, Earth and Water Days are praised consistently, in which students effectively take part. Courses on different parts of ecological maintainability are intermittently coordinated.

Equality of genders:

Giving quality college ambience to foster worldwide pioneers, NCET (National Education Collaboration Trust) unequivocally trusts in orientation fairness guaranteeing feasible improvement of the country is fundamental. Through training programs and joint programs, the Institute has initiated promising initiatives to promote gender equality and raise stakeholder awareness. The institute supports flexible classroom seating and equal representation of both genders in student leadership positions to promote gender equality among students.

The Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) College organized World AIDS Day rally on 1st December 2022 at Potinamallayyapalem . The program started at 10:20 am with the inaugural speech by our Principal Dr. M. Jagadish, who stated the importance of this celebration and observation of this day. He addressed the students and gave a very relevant speech on AIDS, HIV and causes of them, symptoms and ways to cure them. His speech included various ways how a youth can protect the society through awareness and prevention. The positive sign was the student's concentration and eagerness towards the problems caused by AIDS by demonstrating placards in regard to stay safe from this deadly disease. Students through plug cards and 3K Run highlighted the causes, spread and prevention of this disease. A total of 27 students participated in the event.

Name of the event: BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Date: 17-02-2023

The Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) organized the Blood Donation camp association with A.S.Raja Blood Bank.

The camp was organized by the management of SIMS to help the Thalassemia patients. The camp took place in the seminar hall of the college. The Principal of the college had invited the chairman Dr. S. P. Ravindra to be the chief guest for this event. The event started in the morning, with the chairman's speech. The senior students of the college too participated in the program. Apart from students, many common people also participated in this. The blood collected from this camp was to be given to the Government Thalassemia Hospital. The college had arranged for refreshments for those who donated blood in the camp. Students and other people who had participated in this blood donation camp were given certificates and a small gift hamper. To watch over the entire process and to collect the blood, a team of five doctors were put in charge. The college had also arranged for a resting room for anyone who felt dizzy or sick after donating blood. Volunteers from a local club also had come to help to organize the blood donation camp. After the completion of the blood donation, the Principal thanked and appreciated everyone present in the camp. The day ended with the National Anthem and a heartfelt vote of thanks from the Principal of the college. 50 Units of blood collected. 23 students were participated.

On 27th February 2023 Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) College organized an orphanage visit to the MANASU charitable Trust, Simhachalam. Students started from our college by 10:30 A.M and reached the orphanage by 11.15 AM. The volunteers of charitable trust team greeted the students with great enthusiasm. The students interacted with the children and engaged them with various games and fun activities. All the children looked so excited and joyful. The feeling of being in their smile world, spending time with them, and seeing them happy and joyful was really overwhelming. We expressed our gratitude to the caretakers for taking care of these beautiful souls and for giving us this opportunity to spend some time with them. The event ended by distribution of food to the children. A total of 29 students participated in the event.
