We counsel through the various seminars, workshops and awareness programs by the Judges, Police, guest lecturers and senior faculty. The anti-ragging committee and the head of the departments are vigilant and always available for students to bring forth their concerns and counsel them amicably.

Internal Compliance Committee has been established with an objective to sensitize and equip students with issues related to gender sensitization, women empowerment. The institution provided its female students with opportunities to participate in programs such as "Rights of Women in Domestic Laws" and "Self –defense training," both spearheaded by the local police department. Periodically, we run awareness programs for cyber security geared explicitly toward protecting female employees and students. In addition, the college strongly emphasizes the empowerment of young women by providing them with health care as well as the physical, moral, cultural, and skill development of its students.

Awareness programs on Cyber Crime & Deep Fakes to educate the students about various mis happenings in the current scenario. Encouraging students to participate at inter college, inter university, district level, zonal level, state level and national level educational events and cocurricular events. The institution provides industrial visits for the students at UG level and PG level as a part of the curriculum to make them understand the industrial/corporate scenario. Students are encouraged to register in various additional development courses through SWAYAM nptel. Guest lectures from respective field experts are organized to enhance students' knowledge, even ted talks, seminars, etc are also scheduled from time to time in each semester.

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title “Awareness program on Women Political Empowerment and Leadership”. The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The guest addressed the group Women's empowerment (or female empowerment) is accepting women's viewpoints, making an effort to seek them and raising the status of women through education, awareness, literacy, and training. Women's empowerment equips and allows women to make life-determining decisions through the different societal problems. They may have the opportunity to re-define gender roles or other such roles, which allow them more freedom to pursue desired goals. The current scenario of political participation of women in India is promising, but it still has a long way to go. For instance, India ranked 18th on the list of women's political participation in the WEF Global Gender Gap Report of 2020. Moreover, there are only 30% and 17% of women in ministerial and parliamentary positions in India. When it comes to the political leadership, West Bengal is the only Indian state with a female Chief Minister today.

The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The organizer addressed the group, Effective woman hygiene management and waste disposal are essential for maintaining health and environmental cleanliness. This involves the proper use of sanitary products such as pads, tampons, and menstrual cups, ensuring they are changed regularly to prevent infections. Education on personal hygiene practices, including regular washing and appropriate use of hygiene products, is vital. Equally important is the correct disposal of used sanitary products. Providing access to hygienic disposal methods, such as dedicated bins and biodegradable bags, can minimize environmental impact. Community awareness programs can help promote these practices, ensuring that women are informed and empowered to manage their hygiene safely and sustainably.

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title "Importance of Girl Child Literacy." The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The organizer addressed the group, The importance of girl education in India lies in its ability to address several social issues such as poverty, gender inequality, child marriage, and population growth. Education can help girls develop critical thinking skills, improve their economic prospects, and empower them to make informed life decisions. Educated girls are more likely to delay marriage and childbirth, leading to better health outcomes for themselves and their children. They are also more likely to contribute to their family's income and help break the cycle of poverty. Girl education in India has been a topic of great importance for many years. Education is considered one of the most important tools for empowering girls and women, and it can potentially transform their lives and that of their families and communities. Despite significant progress in recent years, girls in India still face many challenges when accessing education, and many are unable to attend a school or complete their education.

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a program with the title " A Program on Self-Employed Women's Association (SEWA)." The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The speaker addressed the group SEWA supports women in organizing in groups, pooling resources, registering collective businesses, and developing these as financially sustainable businesses, which are Women-Owned and Women-Run. A novel way is when women come together, pool resources, and set up collective businesses, where Women are Owners, Women are Managers and Women are Users. Enable access to build their resilience via healthcare, insurance, childcare and social security schemes, infrastructural provisions and linkages. They are also particularly vulnerable to a series of factors that impede their entrepreneurial pathways, including but not limited to market fluctuations, changes in socio-economic policy, external shocks to the ecosystem, and internal family crises. In tailoring our approach to support such women workers, we draw on both SEWA's long history of building solidarity networks as well as its decades of experience in cultivating women's entrepreneurial skills.

WORKSHOP ON GENDER SENSITIZATION

Program Report:

Name of the program: Workshop on gender sensitization

Date of activity: 23-02-2022

Venue: seminar hall SIMS

Organized by: IQAC SIMS

Number of participants: 32

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title " Workshop on gender sensitization." The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The speaker addressed the group, gender sensitivity is behaviour that avoids discrimination by understanding and accepting the multiple differences between men and women. It is a way of thinking that fosters respect and compassion for others regardless of these differences. Gender sensitization among students educates them to rely less on subconscious assumptions and generalizations and more on individual personality traits. Encouraging every woman to play and enjoy themselves, whether it's with a football or a kitchen set, simply allows them to push the boundaries of their imagination.

The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The guest addressed the group, DISHA is a step towards the safety and location by Andhra Pradesh govt. Disha SOS services helps the women and citizens in emergency situation. DISHA app also integrated with needful information like nearby safety places, nearby police stations, nearby hospitals and useful contacts. Disha contains tracking safety feature for every user. This APP also gives you phone numbers that you can dial to get emergency help and support. DISHA also contains links like Helpline Numbers. We hope that this APP. Disha app, developed by the technical services division of the Andhra Pradesh police, sends an alert to the Disha control room when a woman or girl in distress just shakes the mobile phone which contains the Disha App. The app also provides another way of calling for help - they can also press a button on the phone, but in emergency situations if that is not possible, the victim can send an alert to the police by simply shaking phone five times. The personnel at Disha control room in turn will alert the police available near the spot. Police will rush to the spot using GPS-equipped vehicles and assist the person in trouble or anticipating trouble.

The guest addressed the group, The Balika Samridhi Yojana (BSY), launched by the Indian government in 1997, aims to uplift the socio-economic status of girl children from economically disadvantaged families. The scheme provides a one-time grant at birth and annual scholarships from Class I to X, encouraging education and delaying marriage until the legal age. The accumulated funds are deposited in a savings account accessible when the girl turns 18, provided she remains unmarried. BSY has positively impacted communities by emphasizing the value of girls, reducing dropout rates, and improving health and nutrition. Despite challenges, it remains a crucial step towards gender equality and the empowerment of girls in India.

AWARENESS PROGRAM ON ARE WOMEN SAFE ON THE INTERNET

Program Report:

Name of the program: Awareness program on Are women safe on the internet

Date of activity: 04-10-2019

Venue: SIMS College

Number of participants: 33

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title " Are women safe on the internet." The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The organizer addressed the group, The Cyber Crime Prevention against Women and Children (CCPWC) scheme is introduced to develop effective measures to handle cyber-crimes against women and children in India. It allows a cybercrime victim to file a complaint through an online cybercrime reporting platform. The platform also provides details of law enforcement and regulatory agencies at the local and national levels. The CCPWC also conducts awareness programs starting from the school level as a proactive measure to mitigate cyber-crimes. The most important part is to have a thorough knowledge and awareness about privacy and cyber-crimes to avoid people being vulnerable to such threats. There has to be more education on cyber-crimes and online fraud and how to get rid of them or handle them. Cyber literacy should start from the basic level with adequate knowledge about good operating practices. It is necessary to remain extra vigilant about cyber privacy and security. Proper awareness and education can help teach good habits and practices while working online with digital devices. There is also a need for stricter law enforcement and punishment for offenders. Media interventions for creating public awareness can make an effective contribution in bringing about changes in the attitudes of people towards gender norms.

AWARENESS PROGRAM ON GENDER DISCRIMINATION- UNIVERSAL CHALLENGES*Program Report:

Name of the program: Gender Discrimination- Universal Challenges

Date of activity: 05-01-2020

Venue: SIMS College

Number of participants: 30

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a "Awareness Program on Gender discrimination-universal challenges" The program is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The guest addressed the group, Gender discrimination refers to the unequal treatment or opportunities of individuals based on their gender. This can take many forms, including discrimination in the workplace, in education, and in other areas of life. It can involve unequal pay, lack of access to education or other resources, or being subjected to violence or harassment because of one's gender. Women in India often earn less than men for doing the same work, and they are also underrepresented in higher-paying jobs. Girls in India often do not get the same education as boys, which causes a big difference in literacy rates between men and women. Health care discrimination is a serious issue that affects many women in India. Women may have difficulty accessing quality health care due to a number of factors, including poverty, lack of education, and lack of access to transportation. Women in India face numerous restrictions on their freedom. This can include societal norms and expectations that limit their choices and opportunities, as well as legal barriers that discriminate against them. Gender discrimination is a significant issue in India, and women in particular face numerous forms of discrimination and inequality.

PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN IN POLITICS

Program Report:

Name of the program: Participation of Women in Politics

Date of activity: 19-02-2020

Venue: seminar hall SIMS

Number of participants: 33

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title "Participation of women in politics." The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The organizer addressed the group, Women in India participate in voting, run for public offices and political parties at lower levels more than men. Political activism and voting are the strongest areas of women's political participation. To combat gender inequality in politics, the Indian Government has instituted reservations for seats in local governments. Women turnout during India's parliamentary general elections was 65.63%, compared to 67.09% turnout for men. India ranks 20th from the bottom in terms of representation of women in Parliament. Women have held the posts of president and prime minister in India, as well as chief ministers of various states. Indian voters have elected women to numerous state legislative assemblies and national parliament for many decades. The Government of India directed state and local governments to promote equality by class and gender including equal pay and free legal aid, humane working conditions and maternity relief, rights to work and education, and raising the standard of living. In 2019 Indian general election, Naam Tamilar Katchi from Tamil Nadu fielded 50 per cent women candidates in the total 40 Lok Sabha seats. It was the first party in India offered equal number of seats to men and women

A SEMINAR ON IRON DEFICIENCY IN WOMEN*Program Report:

Name of the program: "A seminar on Iron Deficiency in women"

Date of activity: 22-10-2018

Venue: SIMS College

Number of participants: 32

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title "A seminar on Iron Deficiency in women". The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The speaker addressed the group, Iron deficiency anaemia is a common type of anaemia — a condition in which blood lacks adequate healthy red blood cells. Red blood cells carry oxygen to the body's tissues. As the name implies, iron deficiency anaemia is due to insufficient iron. Without enough iron, your body can't produce enough of a substance in red blood cells that enables them to carry oxygen (haemoglobin). As a result, iron deficiency anaemia may leave you tired and short of breath. The WHO has recognised iron deficiency anaemia (IDA) as the most common nutritional deficiency in the world, with 30% of the population being affected with this condition. Although the most common causes of IDA are gastrointestinal bleeding and menstruation in women, decreased dietary iron and decreased iron absorption are also culpable causes. Patients with IDA should be treated with the aim of replenishing iron stores and returning the haemoglobin to a normal level. This has shown to improve quality of life, morbidity, prognosis in chronic disease and outcomes in pregnancy. Iron deficiency occurs in many chronic inflammatory conditions, including congestive cardiac failure, chronic kidney disease and inflammatory bowel disease.

Program Report:

Name of the program: Cancer Prevention: Strategies for the Younger Generation

Date of activity: 21-02-2019

Venue: Seminar Hall SIMS

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title " Cancer Prevention: Strategies for the younger generation." The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The organizer addressed the group, India has a rising burden of cancer with an estimated 70% of the cancers caused by modifiable and preventable risk factors. This review was conducted to document the status, analyze the situation and propose the way forward for cancer prevention in India. A desk review of the online databases and reports from the government websites was conducted. The ongoing initiatives including cancer registries, medical and health education and training, and community-based programmes were analyzed. Cancers of the breast, cervix, and lip and oral cavity are the three most common malignancies, with distinct regional variations in India and account for 34% of the 1.15 million cancer cases diagnosed annually. The major initiatives were focused initially on cancer treatment and prevention was added nearly a decade ago. India needs to build upon the ongoing approach which seems to be focused on "tracking the cancer, teaching the future and helping the masses" by implementing non-vertical primary healthcare cancer prevention and control approach. Cancer prevention should be made an integral part of the health interventions, rapidly extended to primary healthcare services and facilities, linked with specialized treatment facilities, as India aims for universal health coverage. The opportunity provided by the Ayushman Bharat Programme launched in 2018 should be leveraged for rapid expansion and effective coverage of cancer prevention and treatment interventions in India.

Date of activity: 23-04-2019

Venue: seminar hall SIMS

Number of participants: 35

Report:

Srinivasa Institute of Management Studies (SIMS) hosted a seminar with the title " A Creative Workshop for empowering girls" The seminar is being attended by all BBA, MBA, MCA students, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. The speaker addressed the group, The Girls Empowerment Club project is our engagement and skills initiative aimed at fostering confidence, leadership skills amongst young women through educational and creative activities. The girls and young women range in age between 18 and 25. Though some of the girls are enrolled in college, gender still often limits their daily activities. The Girls Empowerment Clubs are a space for them to express themselves outside their homes—and a small step toward the larger goal of empowerment. This platform also allows participants to skills development, livelihood opportunities, learn about their human rights and to cultivate leadership skills. The aim of Girls Empowerment Club is to provide the girls with new skills and deliver awareness and informational workshops on topics they may not learn about at home or in school. The clubs alternate between educational and creative activities each week—topics include creative writing, drama, female health, innovation, gender rights and feminism, and global awareness.
